

L-love is such an inspiring broadcast in our area. I do not believe we have another Christian radio station here. It is wonderful that a community have such a positive radio station. Hopefully this station brings the community together as one group in Christ.